Re: Case Number 05-18-00567-CV; Darlene C. Amrhein v. Attorney Lennie F. Bollinger, and Wormington & Bollinger Law Firm

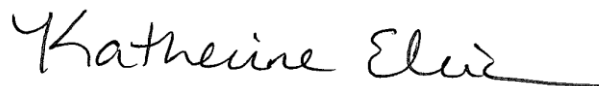

Dear Ms. Matz:

Appellees Lennie F. Bollinger and Wormington & Bollinger Law Firm are in receipt of Appellant's motion to recuse filed with this Court on August 21, 2019. Although this is Appellant's first motion to recuse in this appeal, this is her fourth motion to recuse in this case in whole.

This appeal is set for submission on September 4, 2019. Appellant's motion is completely without merit and simply another attempt to delay this case. While Appellees believe Appellant's motion to recuse is completely without merit, Appellees do not wish to delay the September 4, 2019 submission date and, for that reason only, will not oppose the motion to recuse only to avoid causing delay of the September 4 submission date. Appellees do not intend to file a response unless the court requests one.

Please furnish this letter to the Court. Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely,

Katherine Elrich
